

NIFHA attends successful Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council planning event

NIFHA has attended an interesting and informative event at Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council, kick-starting the council's work on a new Development Plan.

The 'Planning Our Place' event at Mossley Mill saw the launch of commencement of work on the Local Development Plan for the Borough, which will guide development up to the year 2030.

The Mayor, Councillor Thomas Hogg, welcomed many key partners to the event and the council's Chief Executive and planning staff gave detailed information on the Plan and the consultation process.

Attendees, including NIFHA's Chief Executive Cameron Watt, were given the opportunity to engage with the speakers and discuss key strategic planning issues.

<https://twitter.com/ANBorough/status/692766912741261312>

The first step of the council's consultation process is a booklet "Towards Preferred Options", highlighting information about the plan and how members of the public and interested partners can get involved in the process.

Full details of the Local Development Plan, the dates of the public engagement events and the documents published at the event are available by clicking here.

Alternatively, for further information or to have your say in shaping the future of Antrim and Newtownabbey Borough Council, contact the council's planning office on 0300 123 6677.